BUSINESS PRESENTATION

The Business Constituency of the Wright State University Alumni Association will sponsor a presentation entitled, "Public/Private Partnership: Cooperative Investment in Local Priorities," on Tuesday, May 10, 1983. Mr. Alan Cooper, former director of corporate responsibility at ARMCO Corporation, will present this topic based on his involvement with the President's Task Force on Private Sector Initiatives and with the Middletown Community's "Partnership" organization which has operated successfully since 1981.

The concept of public/private partnership is an outgrowth of the current thrust toward private sector initiatives, calling for greater cooperation and coordination among diverse groups within a community so as to identify and prioritize needs, develop the financial and human resource necessary to meet those needs, and ultimately, to reduce the community's dependence on State and Federal funding. The presentation will provide direction and strategies for those who are interested in becoming involved in similar efforts within their own communities.

Alan Cooper has recently joined the faculty of the College of Business and Administration as an associate professor of management and is the first "Executive-in-Residence" at Wright State University. In addition to his extensive corporate experience, Mr. Cooper has been active in public affairs and has lectured nationally for the past several years.

The May 10 presentation will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Medical Sciences Auditorium. There is no admission charge. Preceding the event, tours of the new business facility, Rike Hall, will be conducted between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. beginning from the south-west entrance of the building. All are invited to attend.

The Wright State Alumni of Touche, Ross and Company presented their contributions in support of the activities at the Department of Accountancy.

Members contributing for the start of the 1982-83 Alumni Fund Drive are: Kevin Manley, Tom Roddy, Leo E. Dugdale, Mike Plourde, Deborah K. Goodman, Michael Barlow and Tim Gockel.

NEWS FROM FUNDRAISING

A small but growing committee has big plans. Donn Shankland, Management '80; Susan Schalow, Marketing '80; and Rick White, Accountancy '77 have put together a couple of projects to help endow the Teaching Excellence Award. Estimates are it will take $20,000 to get started.

Two projects have been established and as the committee grows it hopes to establish specific annual events to help fund the project.

Initially items will be offered for sale in the Alumnews. We are fortunate to feature the NCAA Division II souvenir items in this issue which are practical as well.

In the fall a theater evening is planned on WSU's campus. If anyone else would like to participate please call WSU Career Planning and Placement at 873-2556.

CULTURAL & ACADEMIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

Let me begin with a question. How much do we know about our Alumni committees? If you are like most professionals in the field, an honest answer might be, "Not as much as I should." I would like to devote this initial column to describe the members of our committee and how it is going to have an impact on our continuously growing Wright State University.

The members are Suna E. Galloway, Janice J. Gabbert, Cathy Laengle, Jerry Stump and Ted Randall, as the chairperson. Pat Moran was our guest for the evening last meeting.

The members of our committee are friendly, responsible, outgoing, open and have good good sense of humor. And to what do we attribute these enjoyable personality traits. We can trace our friendliness to our education and the professions we chose. We all feel responsible to our family, to ourselves, to our University and to the town we live in. All of us enjoy interaction with people and the joy of sharing with others.

It is of utmost importance that as members, we would like to plan ahead. We would like to keep well informed as to any activities and also to keep actively involved in the activities concerning the Cultural and Academic Committee in our campus.

Our purpose is to offer illustrations and suggestions to establish enrichment programs for our Alumni members and the University.

In assuming the responsibility as members of this committee, we would like to have an assortment of programs. We feel with planning and organization, it will be an honor not a horror for us to perform the task.

On approximately every month, we will meet at the University Center. The completion of our tasks will also determine approval of our Deans and their ideas. We are all willing to devote sufficient time and effort to make this committee work.

If possible, we would like to maintain contact with the other committee members and the Deans of our University from time to time in case there is a question or a procedure which needs explaining later.

PREZ SEZ

1983 has proved to be a busy year so far. We have spent the first two and a half months on committee development. The one thing I have learned so far is that Wright State has alumni out there that do not mind helping. We have been able to get the following committees organized: Membership, Historian, Athletics, Fund Raising, Awards and Recognition, Communications, Social and our newly merged Academic/Cultural committee. All of these committees are active. If you see a place where you can help, or have any suggestions on how these committees can better serve the alumni, call or write.

I attended the NCAA Division II tournament and watched the Raiders bring home a victory!! I would like to think that the Alumni Association can use the Springfield experience as a springboard to make 1983 the year of Wright State's "coming of age".

The beginning of May we will start our annual membership drive. I know I can depend on you for a night of fun, calling WSU Alumni to increase membership. Please let Pat Moran know what night you will be there. Call 873-2620 and sign up now.

The growth of WSU Alumni Association depends on you, the membership. We have a good start; now we need alumni who have a few ideas and a few hours to make it happen.
